FAQ & GENERAL INFORMATION:

Do you host wedding receptions? The theatre is not an ideal venue for your reception or dance—we're best if you're looking for a unique and memorable ceremony! If your event attendance is small (~40 attendees or less), please reach out to us for more details as we may be able to accommodate your reception on our stage! We can also recommend local halls within the vicinity of our space for you to reach out to, if you are interested!

Can I order in catering? The Broadway Theatre does not have a kitchen or space for food preparation and storage. We have concession fare and local beer, cider, draft, and wine available for purchase, but any other food must be prepared offsite/catered and brought in. There is a $100 fee per event should you choose to bring in outside catering. Some of our local recommendations: Calories, Odlá and Amigos Cantina are all within a few blocks of the theatre and offer unique and tasteful catering options for your reception or ceremony.

Local accommodations? We are proud to offer a strong partnership with Delta Marriott Hotels! If you are looking to book accommodations for members of your party or attendees while hosting your ceremony at The Broadway, you are eligible for a preferred partner rate. Please reach out to our office for more information!

How far in advance are you booking dates? We encourage interested renters to reserve their desired date as soon as they are able; we frequently book wedding dates over a year in advance! Contact our office for our most up to date booking availability and limitations.

----Thanks so much for choosing The Broadway Theatre, community owned and operated since '93.----
